A Call to Worship Adapted from Safiyah Fosua, The Africana Worship Book, Year B (Nashville: Discipleship Resources, 2007), 237.

One: Let us come together!

All: How good and pleasant it is for Christians to live together in unity!

One: Open the doors and shout greetings to the church across the street.

All: How good and pleasant it is for Christians to live together in unity!

One: Carry greetings across the railroad tracks to those we never meet.

All: How good and pleasant it is for Christians to live together in unity!

One: Extend your hand of fellowship to both the shelters and the mansions, to the projects and the gated communities.

All: How good and pleasant it is for Christians to live together in unity!

One: Reach out your arms to gather in the little ones and the not-so-little, the vulnerable and the ones who think they have to do it all on their own.

All: How good and pleasant it is for Christians to live together in unity!

One: Remember that we are one HUGE family!!!

All: How good and pleasant it is for Christians to live together in unity!

One: Let us pray...

Opening Prayer

Unifying God, we rejoice that there is one bread and one body because you are one Lord of all. Remind us of this truth today as we reflect upon the ties that bind us together as a community of faith here, there, and everywhere. Help us put the pieces of faith together so that we may be made whole in your love. We pray, in your loving name. Amen.
